Prayers in honor of and to the Blessed Virgin are a powerful weapon against sin, and for healing.

Glorious Mysteries are recited on Sunday, Tuesday & Thursday; Joyful
Mysteries on Monday & Saturday; Sorrowful Mysteries on Wednesday & Friday.

If you recite the Rosary at home, please offer these intentions, and join us on Sunday at 8:30 am. Those who recite the Akathist to the Mother of God or the Rosary receive a partial indulgence when they do so in private, plenary indulgence when they do so as a group

Intentions of the Rosary

- 1st Decade: Help for persecuted Catholics, especially in communist and Islamic states
- 2nd Decade: Spiritual and physical growth of our parish and the Byzantine Catholic Church
- 3rd Decade: Increase in vocations to priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life to serve the Byzantine Catholic Church
- 4th Decade: Repose of the souls who have no one praying for them
- 5th Decade: Healing of the sick in body, mind and soul

Holy Father's Intentions for June

Universal: Immigrants and refugees. That immigrants and refugees may find welcome and respect in the countries to which they come.
Evangelization: Vocations. That the personal encounter with Jesus may arouse in many young people the desire to offer their own lives in priesthood or consecrated life.

THEOSIS

*Thursday, June 25
6 pm--potluck dinner
7 pm--Bible Study*

VOCATION ICON

Today: Bonham/Chavez Next Sunday: Riley

Lorcan MacMurchadha is now in Pittsburgh beginning his first two-week study session for the permanent diaconate at SS. Cyril and Methodius Seminary.

We want to organize the Sunday Announcements better. Therefore we ask that you either (a) submit these to Father Artur or Ann during the week or (b) fill in the space on the greeter's page when you enter the church, and please PRINT when doing so, so it can be read easily.

This includes wedding anniversaries, special events or presentations that need to be done. Doing this will make it easier for Father, and keep the announcement section to a few minutes and mark it with proper decorum.

After the intensive two weeks, he must continue to read assigned texts, and produce papers for different professors at different times throughout the coming months. If he perseveres and is called by God, he will be the second deacon from this parish, another fruit of our continued prayers for vocations and use of the traveling Vocation Icon by our families.

Thank you for your prayers for the grace of priestly, diaconal and monastic vocations!

Mile-Hi District Farmers' Market has returned to Alvarado Park on Sundays from today through Oct. 25, 11 am - 2 pm. Go by after church and check out offerings of local honey, farm fresh produce, baked goods, plants, backyard chickens, baked goods, food trucks.

Barbara's Hall Report:

Thanks to the Svenssons and Marilyn Fore for supplying the Sunday Brunch last week. Marilyn made some really delicious pulled beef sliders, and we brought lots of nachos (boy, those nachos were a big hit!) and birthday cake. Happy Birthday to Marilyn and Barbara and may they have many more happy years.

Evie Jilek did the dishes. Thanks Evie. I get so happy when someone washes dishes!

Join us on Friday mornings outside the Planned Parenthood clinic on San Mateo NE at 9 am for an hour of witnessing to the sanctity of life. We take the large life-sized icon of Our Lady Helper of Mothers, and pray in front of the clinic. There have been women who decided not to have abortions because of our presence.

Pilgrimage in honor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help at St. George Church Olympia, Washington

Father Vasyi Mutka and the community of St. George cordially invite our parish family to join them for the Pilgrimage in honor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. It will take place on the weekend of August 7-9, 2015. The Pilgrimage will include Liturgies, Anointing of the Sick, confessions, the Rosary, and much more to be announced later on in the brochure.

Alive in Christ Retreat Camp for Boys and their Fathers

What could be better than a long weekend of prayer, sports, spiritual talks, games and skits in the beautiful Palomar mountain Range The "Alive in Christ ascetical boot camp for Byzantine Catholic boys and their fathers will be held this year July 30 – August 2nd, at "Palomar Christian Conference Center" Northeast of San Diego, CA.

Boys and young men 7-17 will join Bishop Gerald in this decade long tradition, and return enlivened and enlightened. (Boys 7-10 are required to have a male guardian with them.)

Application deadline is June 29th.

For registration forms and more information, please see Fr. Artur.

Bishop Gerald was very pleased with our parish photo and the spiritual bouquet which was presented to him on his 50th anniversary of priesthood by Father Artur at the Clergy Conference.

He plans to run this in the next issue of our eparchial magazine, Light of the West.

Knights of Columbus:

The Knights have done work at the homes of two parish families, and two more are scheduled.

Blood Drive will take place on Sunday, June 21, after Divine Liturgy. Please sign up to donate blood that day.

Church Picnic is on June 27th, the feast of the Icon of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, at the Montgomery Pool, 5 - 8 pm. The Knights will be grilling the meat for the parish picnic and doing the set up and clean up. Parishioners are asked to bring side dishes and/or desserts.

Elections will be held on Monday, July 6, at 7 pm. All Knights are urged to attend and participate.

Our bulletin is now online at www.olphnm.org. Thank you to Ann Rajala and Gabe Garcia for doing this. This means that if you miss church for some reason on the weekend, you can look up the bulletin online using a computer or your mobile phone (it is set up to work this way) and catch up on the news and meditations.

If you would prefer to receive the bulletin by mail in the future, could you please tell Ann in person or by calling the office at 256-1539. We can then have a list of those who either don't go online, or who just prefer a paper bulletin on hand. Thank you!

ANNUAL JUNE BAZAAR - JUNE 20TH

The annual Byzantine Bazaar is on Saturday, from 10 am - 4 pm. To make this a successful event both for outreach to bring people to our parish and as a fundraiser for the church, we need:

prayers for good weather workers on Friday to wrap and price food, set up, and decorate the hall and church;

workers on Saturday morning at 7 am to set up the outside and get things going; all day for the kitchen, store, baked goods table, and outside service; and clean up at 4 pm so we do not disturb Vespers which is offered at 5 pm;

flyers to be distributed in our neighborhood and to be taken to your relatives; see Brian Fitzpatrick

--and please encourage those who are sick or with special intentions to come for blessings with the relic of St. Jude every half hour beginning at 10 am in the church.

Father Nathaniel Block, a priestly vocation from our parish, is now serving as pastor of Our Lady of the Snows Roman Catholic Church, 1655 S. Main Street, Snowflake, AZ 85937. The parish has four weekend Masses, three in English and one in Spanish.

Please pray for him as he takes on his first pastorate, and consider dropping him a card in the mail to tell him you are doing so.

Father Simon Carian, who often worshipped in our parish as a seminarian for the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, has been assigned to his first parish as a pastor: Sacred Heart Church, 911 N Merriwether St., Clovis, NM 87101.

We will miss his participation at our CAFE club at University of New Mexico, but wish him well in his first pastorate! Feel free to send him a card or note to assure him of your prayers.

Saint Jude, Apostle, Relative of the Lord, and Wonderworker

Jude Thaddeus is part of the extended family of Jesus, and is usually depicted holding a medallion of the Holy Face of Christ. This is based on the tradition that the miraculous image of Jesus not-made-with-hands, the Mandylion, was preserved in the city of Edessa, which was Jude's base for part of his apostolic preaching. He is also shown with a club or a halberd, with which he was martyred; a scroll, for his Letter which is included in the New Testament; and with a flame on his head, referring to his Letter 1:22-23. He is associated with St. Simon the Zealot, and was martyred with him, and thus a host of churches are known as SS. Simon and Jude across the Christian world.

Jude's feast is kept on June 19 in the East, and October 28 in the West. His service in Greater Armenia (eastern Turkey today), Edessa, and Mesopotamia resulted in his popularity in Lebanon, Syria, Iraq, Iran and India, while the export of his relics to the West and an alleged letter of Jesus to King Abgar of Edessa and the resultant miracles of healing rooted him among the Slavs, Germans, Celts, and French well before the Middle Ages.

He is known as the saint of the desperate, the saint to whom one can always turn to for help. Because of the similarity of his name to that of the traitor Judas, he is known by his second name as well, which can lead to confusion when trying to keep track of him as there is a St. Thaddeus of the Seventy Disciples of Christ! Once unknown in the US, devotion to him was introduced in 1929 in Chicago at what has become the National Shrine of St. Jude. Thousands successfully turned to his intercession in the Great Depression, and the many medical cures resulted in comedian Danny Thomas (a Maronite Catholic from Lebanon) founding St. Jude Children's Hospital in Memphis.

Today St. Jude is one of the most popular heavenly intercessors in North America (Canada, US, Mexico).

Father Chris loans his first-class relic of St. Jude to the parish every year for use in the church during the bazaar and the Sunday after. Armenian Dominicans were entrusted with part of his body, but the push of Islam drove them to Italy, and Father's relic comes from what was entrusted to the papacy in Rome.

PRAYER TO ST. JUDE

We praise you, O Jude, faithful witness, relative of Christ the Lord, an unshakeable pillar of the Church. You preached the Word to the Gentile nations, and you have been exalted in return by God, Who grants you the grace of healing. You are the intercessor of those who turn to you, healing their ills and consoling their sorrows. Glorious apostle and martyr St. Jude, hear the prayer now of those who turn to you, so that through your intercession we can receive remission of our sins and strength to carry our burdens. Amen
