Christ is Among Us! He is and Always Shall Be!

Novena to St. Jude - Desperate Situations and Hopeless Cases

Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the Church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of difficult cases, of things almost despaired of. Intercede with God for me that He bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly - (make your request here)

- and that I may praise God with you and all the saints forever. I promise, O Blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor granted me by God and to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen

PRAYER

May the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus be adored, and loved in all the tabernacles until the end of time. Amen. May the most Sacred Heart of Jesus be praised and glorified now and forever. Amen. St. Jude pray for us and hear our prayers. Amen.

Blessed be the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Blessed be the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Blessed be St. Jude Thaddeus, in all the world and for all Eternity.

(say this prayer, followed by the Our Father and the Hail Mary)

Dear Apostle and Martyr for Christ, you left us an Epistle in the New Testament. With good reason many invoke you when illness is at a desperate stage. We now recommend to your kindness (name of patient) who is in a critical condition. May the cure of this patient increase his/her faith and love for the Lord of Life, for the glory of our merciful God. Amen.

Holy Father's Intentions / June

For migrants fleeing their homes We pray that migrants fleeing from war or hunger, forced to undertake journeys full of danger and violence, find welcome and new opportunities in the countries that receive them.

Lord our Savior, we are not worthy that you enter our roof, and yet you call us to be one with you. We ask that you would enter our lives more and more each day. We especially ask for an abundance of vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, monastic and religious life, we pray you, hear and have mercy.

“Let it be done for you as you have believed.” Jesus brought healing to the centurion's servant when he sought healing. When we have faith and live it out, our Church can continue to share the love and healing of God to the world. A vocation to holy orders or the monastic life brings that to the Church in a special way. To learn more, contact the Vocations Office at 206-329-9219 or email: vocations@ephx.org

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

Bishop Robert Barron: ABRAHAM WAS CHOSEN BY God as the father of a people who would be the means by which God would save the world. His great mark is FAITH, that is to say, trust. FAITH is what Adam and Eve could not muster (they grasped at godliness) and from this followed the agony of the world. God commenced a rescue operation by setting Abraham in quest of a promised land.

Pope Francis: "Every family needs a father — a father who shares in his family's joy and pain, hands down wisdom to his children, and offers them firm guidance and love."

St. John Paul II: "In revealing and in reliving on earth the very fatherhood of God, a man is called upon to ensure the harmonious and united development of all the members of the family."

Pope Francis: "Children need to find a father waiting for them when they come home after failing."

St. John Paul II: "Love for his wife as mother of their children and love for the children themselves are for the man the natural way of understanding and fulfilling his own fatherhood ... efforts must be made to restore socially the conviction that the place and task of the father in and for the family is of unique and irreplaceable importance."

Pope Benedict XVI: "God is a Father who never abandons his children, a loving Father who supports, helps, welcomes, forgives, saves, with a fidelity that immensely surpasses that of men, opening up to an eternal dimension."

Pope Francis: "A good father knows how to wait and knows how to forgive from the depths of his heart. Certainly, he also knows how to correct with firmness: He is not a weak father, submissive and sentimental. The father who knows how to correct without humiliating is the one who knows how to protect without sparing himself."

June 19 - Saint Jude Thaddeus

Jude was one of Twelve Apostles, and is known for preaching the Good News in Mesopotamia (present-day Iraq) around 37 A.D., where he became a leader of the Church of The East that St. Thomas established there. St. Jude traveled throughout modern Iraq and eastern Turkey with St. Simon, preaching and converting many people to Christianity. He went well beyond the borders of the Roman Empire, working among the Armenians, Assyrians, Medes, Parthians, and Persians.

St. Jude is traditionally depicted carrying the image of the Face of Jesus in his hand or close to his chest. This idea comes from a story in which King Abgar of Osroene of asked Jesus to cure him of leprosy and sent an artist to bring him a drawing of Jesus. Impressed with Abgar's great faith, Jesus pressed his face into a cloth and gave it to St. Jude to take to Abgar. Upon seeing Jesus' image, the King was cured and he converted to Christianity. This is the famous Icon-Made-Without-Hands. In fact, that country is one of the first to have a Christian majority, including members of the royal family. King Abgar V ruled at the time of Christ's adulthood, dying in 50 AD.

St. Jude is often shown in paintings with a flame around his head. This represents his presence at Pentecost, when he received the Holy Spirit with the other apostles. In the Middle Ages, St. Bernard of Clairvaux (France) was a renowned devotee of St. Jude, as was St. Bridget of Sweden who, in a vision, was encouraged by Jesus to turn to St. Jude with faith and confidence. He told her that, in accordance with Jude's surname, Thaddeus (which means generous, courageous, and kind), "he will show himself to be the most willing to give you help."

In America, novena prayers to St. Jude helped people, especially newly-arrived immigrants from Europe, deal with the pressures caused by living in a new country. Devotion to him increased greatly during the Great Depression, Second World War, and the rapid social challenges of the 1960s.

Why has devotion to St. Jude continued to grow to the present day?

In spite of (or possibly because of) all the advances human society has made, human beings find themselves under incredible stress and have difficulty coping at one time or another. People are finding that technology is unable to provide comfort and hope when it is truly needed, even with the new AI inventions.

Millions of people around the world turn to St. Jude for his intercession when they feel the most helpless and alone. St. Jude has proven to be a true friend and a beacon of hope to those who call on him--always willing to help and seek help no matter how desperate the need. And in today's tumultuous times, we need him more than ever.
