Christ is Among Us! He is and Always Shall Be!

Novena to St. Jude - Desperate Situations and Hopeless Cases

Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the Church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of difficult cases, of things almost despaired of. Intercede with God for me that He bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly - (make your request here)

- and that I may praise God with you and all the saints forever. I promise, O Blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor granted me by God and to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen

PRAYER

May the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus be adored, and loved in all the tabernacles until the end of time. Amen. May the most Sacred Heart of Jesus be praised and glorified now and forever.

Amen. St. Jude pray for us and hear our prayers. Amen.

Blessed be the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Blessed be the Immaculate Heart of Mary Blessed be St. Jude Thaddeus, in all the world and for all Eternity.

(say this prayer, followed by the Our Father and the Hail Mary)

Dear Apostle and Martyr for Christ, you left us an Epistle in the New Testament. With good reason many invoke you when illness is at a desperate stage. We now recommend to your kindness (name of patient) who is in a critical condition. May the cure of this patient increase his/her faith and love for the Lord of Life, for the glory of our merciful God. Amen.

HAPPY Father's Day

There are four aspects to St Joseph being the Patron of fathers; the first is as an example to fathers of a protector and provider as we just reviewed above. Next, he is an example as a worker that not just money and wealth are important, but equally important is to provide quality of life to the family. St. Joseph also reminds fathers about the importance of commitment to marriage and the importance of living an unstained moral life in terms of reading, movies, etc. Lastly, examples abound of fathers that prayed to Saint Joseph and received overwhelming and unexpected help.

As an earthly foster-father himself, St. Joseph understands the role of fatherhood, and he is a very powerful intercessor.

All you need to do is truly believe, pray devoutly, and St. Joseph will be there for you.

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH FOR ALL THE FATHERS (St. John XXIII) TO ALL THE FATHERS IN THE WORLD:

we sincerely greet and salute you on this very special day! We could never thank you enough for the gift of life, the silent and hidden sacrifices and the gentle but firm affection and love you have for us! On this day, we would like to entrust you to the intercession of St. Joseph, the foster father of Our Lord. May you all strive to be holy Christian fathers, always present beside your wife and your children, to faithfully love, protect, sustain, strengthen, educate, correct and provide for them, with an authentic Christian wisdom, strong arms, resolute will and firm but gentle heart, wanting always the best, and the true earthly and heavenly happiness for your wife and children. This we ask God the Father, model of all fathers in the world, from whom all fatherhood on earth comes. AMEN.

Nativity John the Baptist

June 24 is the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. He is the only "ordinary" saint whose conception, birth and death are commemorated on the Church Calendar (Sept. 23, June 24, Aug. 29). He is the Forerunner of Jesus, the last of the Jewish prophets, the one who prepared "the way of the Lord" for Jesus' ministry. The prophet's birth took place almost six months before that of Jesus, and according to the Gospel account was expected by prophecy (Matt. 3:3; Isaiah 40:3; Malachi 3:1) and foretold by an angel. St. Elizabeth gives birth to him just one day before the end of a nine-month pregnancy - this shows that unlike Jesus, Who is born after a perfect pregnancy, John is only a man, despite his prophetic abilities.

The angel appeared to his father, the priest Zacharias, in the Temple sanctuary, but Zacharias doubted the angel's prediction of conception and birth of a prophet to himself and his wife as they were old. Zacharias lost his power of speech because of his unbelief over the birth of his son, and had it restored on the occasion of John's circumcision (Luke 1:64). Zacharias, of course, should have known better: there were several such occasions in the Bible, beginning with the patriarch Abraham himself, of conceptions by elderly or supposedly infertile women!

John was a Nazirite from his birth (Luke 1:15; Num. 6:1-12), meaning that he was consecrated to God. Like most of the prophets, John spent his early years in the mountainous tract of Judea lying between Jerusalem and the Dead Sea (Matthew 3:1-12). He led a simple life, wearing rope and clothing made from camel hair, not fine linens, and eating "locusts and wild honey" (Matt. 3:4), not meat. This shows that he is a chosen one of God, who depends on God. As an adult John started to preach in public, and people from "every quarter" were attracted to his message.

The essence of his preaching was the necessity of repentance and turning away from selfish pursuits in order to serve and love God more. In addition, he warned that a greater prophet was coming, and soon, who would transform the world by baptizing with fire (predicting the flames of the Holy Spirit). He denounced the Sadducees and Pharisees as a "generation of vipers," and warned them not to assume that their heritage gave them special privilege (Luke 3:8). He warned tax collectors and soldiers against extortion and plunder. His doctrine and manner of life stirred great interest, bringing people from Judea, Galilee, the Decapolis and beyond to see him on the banks of the Jordan River. There he baptized thousands who came in a spirit of repentance.

When Jesus comes to the Jordan River, John baptizes Him (reluctantly), at which the Trinity is revealed for the first time. From then on, John "humbly steps aside" as the song says for the feast of Theophany, and was executed because he confronted the corrupt Herodians with their sins. In Resurrection icons, John is shown as one of the first waiting to be raised by Christ; in heaven he stands in supplication, with Mary, at the side of Jesus, as shown in the Deesis icons.

June 19th: Saint Jude Thaddeus

St. Jude was born into a Jewish family in Galilee, the same region that Jesus grew up in. He probably spoke Greek and Aramaic, like many of his contemporaries in that area, and he was a farmer (as many of his family were) by trade. Jude was described by St. Matthew (13:55) as being one of the "brethren" of Jesus, probably meaning a cousin since the Hebrew word for "brethren" indicates a blood relationship. His mother, Mary, was referred to as a cousin of Jesus' mother Mary, while his father, Cleophas, is said to have been the brother of St. Joseph. "Jude", means giver of joy, while "Thaddeus", another name he was called, means generous and kind, so he obviously was a very good person.

Around the year 60 A.D., St. Jude wrote his Letter to recent Christian converts in Eastern churches that were under persecution. In it, he warned them against the pseudo-teachers of the day who were spreading false ideas about the early Christian faith. He encouraged them to persevere in the face of the harsh, difficult circumstances they were in and to stay in the love of God as they had been taught. His inspirational support of these persecuted believers led to him becoming the patron saint of desperate cases. He is believed to have been martyred in Persia or Syria around 65 A.D. The axe or club that he is often shown holding in pictures symbolizes the way in which he was killed.

Jude had several brothers, including St. James, who was another of the original Apostles. He was later married, had at least one child, and there are references in Roman writings to his grandchildren living in 95 A.D., when they were summoned to Rome to be interviewed by Emperor Nerva, since they were relatives of Jesus Christ. He found them to be ordinary farmers, and sent them back to Palestine in safety.

Jude was one of Twelve Apostles, and is known for preaching the Good News in Mesopotamia (present-day Iraq) around 37 A.D., where he became a leader of the Church of The East that St. Thomas established there. St. Jude traveled throughout modern Iraq and eastern Turkey with St. Simon, preaching and converting many people to Christianity. He went well beyond the borders of the Roman Empire, working among the Armenians, Assyrians, Medes, Parthians, and Persians.

St. Jude is traditionally depicted carrying the image of the Face of Jesus in his hand or close to his chest. This idea comes from a story in which King Abgar of Osroene asked Jesus to cure him of leprosy and sent an artist to bring him a drawing of Jesus. Impressed with Abgar's great faith, Jesus pressed his face into a cloth and gave it to St. Jude to take to Abgar. Upon seeing Jesus' image, The King was cured and he converted to Christianity. This is the famous Icon-Made-Without-Hands. In fact, that country is one of the first to have a Christian majority, including members of the royal family. King Abgar V ruled at the time of Christ's adulthood, dying in 50 AD. St. Jude is often shown in paintings with a flame around his head. This represents his presence at Pentecost, when he received the Holy Spirit with the other apostles.
